

Industry Institution Interaction Cell (IIIC) :

IIIC has been established in Mechanical Department of RMDSSoE in the year 2016. The committee constitutes members from Industry with excellent blend of various levels of expertise. Eminent members include Director from MNC, Vice president from one of the largest Indian OEM, Head of Vehicle Integration and Validation of European JV and subject matter expert from Manufacturing domain.

The cell had organized domain technical knowledge sharing sessions from various industry experts for the benefit of students. Cell had also organized fundamental knowledge training session for skill development of graduates and personnel from industry. Various certification programs from distinguished OEMs are also finalized for improving employability of undergraduate students.