

Dr. Ashwini Manish Brahme is associated with Sinhgad Institute of Management and Computer Application (SIMCA), Narhe, Pune as Assistant Professor since January 2013 and has a total 14 years of teaching experience for MCA. She believes in holistic development of students, conducive and innovative teaching learning process for the growth of organization.

She has completed her Ph.D. (Computer Management) from Savitribai Phule Pune University. Her area of research interest lies in Text Mining, Knowledge Discovery, Natural Language Processing (NLP), Cyber Crime and cyber security. She is expertise in various subjects like Software Engineering, Object Oriented Analysis and Designing, Text Mining, Information Security and Audit, Cyber Crime, Research Methodology.

Dr. Ashwini Brahme has also worked on SPPU – UGC Minor Research Project. She has published 16 research papers in various reputed international refereed, UGC approved journals (8) also presented 9 papers in various conferences. She has attended 14 Faculty Development Programme and 11 Seminars and Workshops.

Dr. Ashwini Brahme has been assisting and coordinating the Ph.D. Research Center at SIMCA since 2014. She has organized various national and international conferences on Innovations in IT and Management, conducted FDP's, Seminars and Workshops consistently. She has also played a key role as a NAAC Coordinator and Departmental Presentation during the NAAC Visit. She is also a Resource Center Coordinator for IIT Bombay Spoken Tutorial Project Training and Certification 2013-19.