The journey to an international trip started from 28th of June, arriving at Delhi, attending a Pre-departure Orientation in the kind presence Shreemati Upma Chawdhary, Secretary of Youth Affairs and Sports Department, Government of India and many other honourable dignitaries from all over India.

A troop of 176 national volunteers along with the Regional Directors, Professors and YAS department ministers belonging to National Service Scheme, Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan, Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development, IIT's, IIM's and AIIMS left for Beijing, China. China was beautiful and what excited me the most was its ancient culture which also had Indian origin. Buddhism, China's only religion was originated there by an Indian monk. The use of words like Apsaras, Daitya were very common in their culture.

The visit to the Indian Embassy was utter delight as it was the only source for Indian food! Meeting several Foreign ministers, the young IFS ministers, was highly motivating.

During Beijing, He got opportunities to visit China Railway Construction Engineering Group and discuss about India-China Friendship. He also visited the All China Youth Federation and got to know the current scenario of Chinese youth.

The next City was Dunhuang, the place where The Silk Route originated, the trade centre of the ancient China history. It was one the best visit he had as he got to know the most about Chinese culture here. He visited the Mogao Grottoes, UNESCO World Heritage Centre, known as the 1000 Buddha caves, Modern Agriculture Park and College of Dunhuang and got to know the current trend in the education system amongst the youth. His Last City in China was Lanzhou. The city known for the Yellow river, Chinese mother figure. In Lanzhou he visited the Lanzhou Jiao tong University and had a healthy discussion with the students. He also visited the Planning Exhibition hall and got to know about the planning of Lanzhou and growth of silk route in the city.

On the last day of Lanzhou, he got for the farewell. During the farewell he got an opportunity to perform the traditional Maharashtrian dance. It felt amazing to share the Indian culture and all the people were really appreciative. He also saw some of the Chinese cultural dances and found them mesmerizing.

The next day he went back to Beijing and visited the Summer Palace, the Palace built by the Last Emperor of China for his mother on her birthday. It was beautiful and the place made us learn so much about bonding and affection.

The next day had much more than he expected. Visit to one of the seven Wonders of the World, The Great Wall of China. Built and extended by several dynasties, the wall provided security and was also used in trading. The 8000 kms beautiful architecture was indeed the most beautiful memory from China.

Getting to know China and its rich cultural heritage was one of the best things he could have ever dreamed of. He is highly grateful to the Government of India, Director and Regional Director of National Service Scheme and SPPU University Officials for providing me an opportunity and Sinhgad management.

Visit to china railway construction engineering group and China - India youth talk

Visit to dunhaunge musuem and the dunhaunge optoelectronic expo park

Visit to magao grottoes - historical caves of china

SPPU Guinness World Record ACTIVITY REPORT

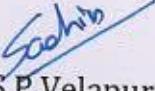

Date : 23rd June 2019

Time : 7.00 am to 12.00 p.m.

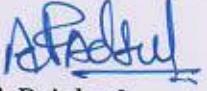

Venue : Guinness World Record for the 'largest distribution of saplings' at Savitri Phule Pune University (SPPU)

On June 23, SPPU attempted to set a Guinness world record for distributing the largest number of saplings of a single species of plant. A total of 16,731 saplings of Neem were distributed to National Social Service (NSS) volunteers in the SPPU campus, in the presence of chief minister Devendra Fadnavis and vice-chancellor Nitin Karmalkar. It was a part of socially relevant project 'Nirmal (Clean), Harit (Green) and Swastha (Healthy) wari', as part of the annual pilgrimage to Pandharpur, famously known as 'Ashadhi Wari'. Earlier, a school in Dubai held the record of distributing 9,371 saplings at a time at a single venue. This event also kick off the university's "Green Vari project". Vari has been a tradition of over seven centuries. SPPU, via the NSS, spreads awareness in regards to health, hygiene and environment through Vari. These trees will be planted along the side of Vari road to increase green cover in the region. From SITS Narhe, 137 students and faculties were present for the same event.

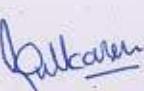

NSS volunteers were extremely happy not only to witness but to be a part of another historic moment, for the cause of environment conservation.

SINHGAD INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY AND SCIENCE, NARHE SWACCAH BHARAT ABHIYAN ACTIVITY REPORT

Hon'ble Prime Minister Sh. Narendra Modi urged the people of India to keep their surroundings clean during his first address to the nation on the eve of Independence Day. NSS have been conducting various activities under the cleanliness drive. The main purpose of this program was to address the issues of personal hygiene, public sanitation conditions, lack of awareness and the general issue of public attitude that withholds the population in taking a proactive attitude towards the problem, i.e, the cleanliness. The campaign focused on gathering as much attention as possible towards this issue as it is taken rather lightly in Indian society.

The following activities are conducted by Sinhgad Institute of Technology & Science Narhe, NSS Unit during the observance of Swachhta Pakhwara from 01st to 15th August, 2019. During this awareness programme, NSS Volunteers are participated and conceded out various activities like College Campus Cleaning, Awareness Campaigns, Hospital Cleaning Campaign, Cleaning at flood affected village. The program began with a Swachhta Shapath (Oath) Taking Ceremony by the NSS volunteers on 1st of August in the presence of the NSS officer, Mr. Dipak H. Wagh. During 2nd to 8th August 2019, will devote five days for cleaning college campus premises like labs, classrooms, library, college canteen, parking area, of their institutions. SPPU students lend a helping hand to state's flood-hit regions

From rebuilding their houses to motivating them to start afresh, through street plays, a group of students helped get things back on track in villages in Kolhapur and Sangli

Sushmita.Jha@timesgroup.com

It's been a while since the flood waters in Kolhapur and Sangli have receded. However, the struggle to rebuild what was lost is still on for residents of the districts. Multiple organisations and youth groups are doing their bit to help in the process, and these include a group of students from 62 colleges affiliated to the Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU) who volunteered to do ground work in the flood-hit regions to help things get back to normal.

Manoj Gajpal, a student of Professor Rankkrishna More Arts, Commerce and Science College, Akurdi, who was part of the first batch of volunteers sent by the NSS dept of SPPU, says, "For the residents to get back on their feet and start earning their livelihood again will at least take another 8-9 months. Till then, providing whatever help needed is the only solution."

The students have helped in rehabilitation work in 10 villages of the two districts, including Terwad, Rajapur, Rajapurwadi, Takli, Akivai in Shiroli taluka of Kolhapur, and Walwa, Boregaon, Shirgaon, Bawali and Audumbar in Sangli district. They stayed at the villages for seven days and helped in everything, right from cleaning, homes, roads and schools, to counselling those affected.

Before their visit to the areas, most students were aware of the situation only through what was shown on the news. The actual situation was even worse. "When we entered the village on the first day, for as far as I could see, the area was filled with mud and water logging. Even the most basic daily necessities weren't available," says Dnyaneshwar Devare, a student from H.P.T. Arts and R.E.B. Science College, Nashik.

From understanding the needs of the villagers to raising the issues with university authorities, the students did their bit for the people. Anu Pandurang Kongre, another student from Simhagad Institute of Technology, shared an incident that hit her hard. "A grandmother and her differently-abled grandson was staying in a tent right next to their destroyed house. When we spoke to her, she broke down and told us that the money she had was washed away in the floods and she had nothing to feed her grandson now. We were deeply hurt by her condition and decided to pitch in whatever amount we could for her," recalls Anu.

Besides helping with financial and medical needs, the students also did their research to help make the damaged houses liveable again. Roshni Ravindra Sonawane, a student of H.P.T. Arts and R.Y.K. Science College, shares that when she heard that they would be participating in the rehabilitation drive, she started researching online about reconstructing houses. "I watched a lot of videos

WHAT'S UP, CAMPUS?

Students enact the street play that was performed in Kolhapur and Sangli

The students helped clean and restore several schools in the regions back to function. The university sent stationary supplies and most kids were back to taking lessons soon. "We carried books, notebooks, pencils and pens for the kids in the villages. We also took one class there and they were really happy to finally get their books and study material back," says Mauli Khade, a student from SPPU, source of entertainment or distraction for them. So, we decided to perform street plays for them, not just for entertainment but also for motivating them to start afresh," says Manoj. Manoj and his team gathered all the villagers in an open field and performed. "The smile on their faces made us feel better and also helped them forget about the situation for a bit," adds Dnyaneshwar.

The relief work not only helped students understand the situation better but also established bonds for a lifetime. Manoj had missed out on Rakshabandhan because he was in Kolhapur then. But, among the villagers, he found a sister. "There was young girl who was the only bread earner of her family of six. She would stitch blouses but lost her sewing machine in the flood. So, four of us volunteers pitched in and bought her a new sewing machine to help her get back to work. The girl was so moved that she invited all of us to her house for Rakshabandhan and tied Rakhi on our wrists," says Manoj. Manoj is regularly in touch with the young girl and is planning to visit her again soon. Like Manoj, the other volunteers too are emotionally attached to a lot of the villagers and plan to go back to the regions for Diwali.
