Activities under cultural and communal diversities

Name of event: Tree Plantation Program

Date: 04/06/2016

Number of social activities are conducted under MESA to inculcate sense of social responsibility and give a small contribution to the society. With this intend a small program of tree plantation activity was held besides college campus, Pune on 4 June 2016. Along with the MESA In charge Prof. Rachel Patil and Student MESA President Miss. Kiran Tarate. 20 MESA members participated actively. The work was appreciated by HOD Prof. S.C. Shilwant and Principal Dr. Vijay Wadhai.

Tree plantation is important because it provides fresh fruits, vegetables, nuts, and other foods for the survival of life on Earth. They are the producers and the source of food energy for all living things to survive, as they are at the bottom of the food chain. Aside from this basic need, tree plantation is important for humans to meet their medicinal needs, fodder for domestic animals, household tools, fuel, and so on.

Name of event: Guest Lecture on “Personality Development”

Date: 05/07/2016

Our college gave us a great opportunity to attend a guest lecture on personality development and English speaking skills. The lecture was conducted by Mr. Rajesh Chavan from Jeevan Sanjivani, Wai, Satara. The session dealt with all the various requirement in ones personality from the way we present ourselves to the English we speak. He started off with “Spoken English”, where he gave us a brief introduction to how English should be spoken to deliver a strong speech or make a strong impression. He started with basic grammar which is a very common error people commit. He gave a number of tips and tricks to avoid these mistakes and have a strong impression on people or our audience. He spoke about various topics such as fluency, pronunciation, grammar, specific use of words, language. Starting of with fluency, he told us how important fluency can be while delivering a speech and a bit of an error can cause nervousness within self and give bad impressions to the people listening to you. Then he moved on to pronunciation which includes the way we spell a word. Due to the different country barriers, there are different ways of pronunciation, though there are a set of ways of pronouncing words. Then moving on to specific use of words, where he mentions words can be used in different ways to form a better sentence to give a impactful speech , for example when one asks how was the movie, instead of replying “it was good”, it could be replaced by “it was spectacular”. This minor yet a strong change gives a stronger effect to the meaning of sentence. Now coming to the most important point, language. Language is to be first learnt to use all the above key points. This can be achieved in various ways such as reading books, watching movies, writing, etc. By following all of the above point’s one can make their presentation very impactful.

After a lecture on “Spoken English”, he moved on to a topic which is important to every person in today’s generation which is “Personality Development”. Here he death with a number of aspects required to give a confidence presentation. To engineering students, this helped us to give better interviews for our placements, jobs, future presentations, etc. He gave us ways to portray ourselves in a beautiful manner which would make our audience and people around like us.

The main topics he mentioned to improve one’s personality was body language, eye contact, and the 4 Q’s. Body language is the way one shows his/herself to the audience or people around to give a good impression. This is done by a number of techniques such as gestures, standing straight without knees bent, use of complete stage, etc. Coming to eye contact, it reveals all the secrets if a person is lying or is confident. For example, when a person is telling a lie, he always tries to avoid eye contact to avoid getting caught. Thus eye contact is very important to make person front of you to believe you in any circumstances.

Coming to the 4Q's, it includes – Physical quotient, intelligent quotient, spiritual quotient and emotional quotient. When one has achieved in gathering all these, his personality is pretty much perfect and give a great presentation. Sir made the session interesting and very lively with jokes, videos, to keep everyone attentive and interested.

Inauguration of Teachers Day

Address by Honorable HoD

Name of event: Teachers Day ENTC

Date: 05/09/ 2016

We celebrate Teachers' day every year throughout the country on 5th September. Students express their gratitude and appreciation for their teachers on this day. This day is dedicated to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan – second President of India. The great academic philosopher, and one of the most well known diplomats, scholar, president of India and above all a teacher. As a tribute to this great teacher, his birthday has been observed as teachers' day. A celebration conducted at our department by our students on 5th September 2016. The whole function was planned Team ETSA. We decided that, the responsibility of teaching is taken up by the students as an appreciation for their teachers. As per the Indian culture, we always start our work with prayer. Total number of participants in teacher's day are 50. Students have prepared timetables of lectures and practicals for 3rd and 5th and 7th semester from 08:45 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Students went to class to deliver lectures on the ongoing semester subjects. On this day, our teaching was started as usual on 08:45 a.m. All the students in role of teachers who had no lectures they had seated in staff room. All other non-participated students were also studying seriously without making any noise or mischief. All participated students were appreciated by giving Pen as our token of love. Ice Breaking Sessions activities like Quiz (movie name, song, actor etc), Dumb Charades, and Pick a Chit etc. for Teachers were conducted by ETSA members. Students gave a gift as a token of love to all Teachers. The program was concluded by Lunch party.
