Mothers our guest for the day were welcomed with traditional haldi-cummcum, a flower and sweets, refreshments were arranged for all at SIBAR Canteen and after all proceeded to Auditorium. The program began with Saraswati Puja followed by facilitation of the guests with a memento and a tulsi plant. An eminent panel was present for the event, Mrs. Sulekha Talwalkar (Actor and anchor), Mrs. Vijaya Navale (Vice-Principal, Sinhgad College of Commerce), Ms. Pratibha Kulkarni (Self Defiance trainer), Ms. Ankita Rote (STES Student and Innovator), Ms. Anjali Badwe (Rashtrasanchar Newspaper representative) and Ms. Apoorva (RJ-Radio City).

Ms. Ankita Rote was felicitated by her mother and in turn her mother was felicitated by Mrs. Vijaya Navale.

The sessions started with some inspirational thoughts by Ms. Sulekha Talwalkar. Madam joined virtually. She stated that she was proud to be a woman and wished a happy woman's day to all the ladies in the auditorium. Woman are powerful in every role they play in their life. Every day is a woman's day in the life of all the ladies. She spoke about drama which will be featuring on 13th of March 2022 in Pune. She runs a spiritual workshop which helps in all tasks for a woman who wants to go for a startup. She also expressed that a woman should think of herself first than the surrounding follows. So at the end she requested to buy a rose for each one of us and keep smiling.

Dr. Dhananjay Mandlik sir expressed his idea over the Woman's day programme by saying the mothers are here today to see where their daughter is studying the campus, the mess, the library etc. he also spoke about the care taken by mothers to their daughters more than anyone else in the family.

Dr. Netra Patil ma'am expressed her thoughts about the difference in male female community which has been very much reduced. There are many tasks which are done by men today females also ahead in that work.

Mrs Navale also spoke on the theme "Aai" which sparkled our love for each one's mother by her enlightening words. She read out nice dohas, shayari and Abhang.

Ms. Anjali Badwe wished all the ladies a Happy Woman's Day. She said the newspaper Rashtrasanchar has columns for success stories for women, health tips for women. The newspaper also highlight new entrepreneur's success path, startups ideas and speech therapy. She also promised to showcase top 10 selfies of student and mother in tomorrow's edition of the newspaper. There was also a yearly subscription given of Rs.99 on this special day.

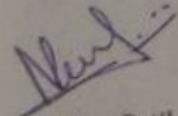

Ms. Pratibha Kulkarni gave us good tips on self defense by stating 6 fitness types like Mansik fitness, Baudhik fitness, Sharirik fitness, Kautumbik fitness and Aarthik fitness. She also gave demo on how to protect ourself on road or at home when somebody misbehaves with us.

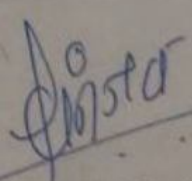

Ms. Ankita Rote an Engineering student of Sinhgad College, Solapur spoke about her research on a safety jacket which she has made which protects any girl who will wear it from an outsider who tries to invade her. She also gave the demo of her jacket which showed the sparks when anyone tries to come close. She had this idea way back in her diploma years and put into practice in her engineering degree.

The mothers enjoyed the dance performance by the MBA students and everyone departed for lunch.

The programme continued after post lunch with an interesting personality Ms. Apoorva a Radio Jockey. She is an animal lover and better known as "Filmy Chokri" on Radio City. She interacted with the parents and explored herself to the audience.

There was a social drama enacted by MBA students. The parents also enjoyed the games of "What is in your wallet", a short saree run, and some funny questions were given to mother, which they answered in an even funnier manner.
