EDITORIAL MESSAGE

New beginnings are always scary. It's scary to find another job, to move to a different place, to make new friends, write a novel, or travel far. But often, when you think about it, the benefits outweigh the negatives. You just need to take the first step. With this mindful thought I welcome all the upcoming buddy managers to their new academic journey and wish them best luck for their first step towards leading a successful corporate life.

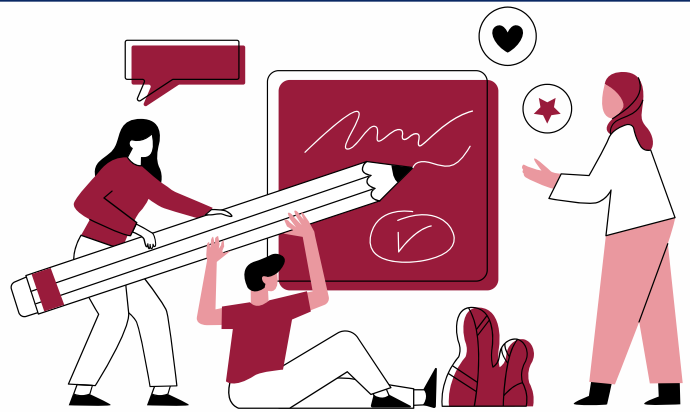

Campus and Corporate are two different realms, which operate on different platforms with different purposes and ideologies. However, due to these dynamic times, there is a need that these two different worlds come together under one umbrella to address and tackle some real-world issues and challenges. A few C2C sessions were carried out for students to overcome this barrier.

Teacher's day was celebrated with enthusiasm and pride. Hindi diwas was celebrated to pay tribute to mother language of India.
